

THE STATE PORT PILOT OUR TOWN

Caswell Beach

Ceremony at rifle range Saturday

The Friends of Fort Caswell Rifle Range and the Brunswick Town Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold a ceremony Saturday, April 6, at 11 a.m. at the rifle range at Caswell Dunes.

Members will read the names of local soldiers who served in the Great War. A re-enactor will be on hand, along with a color guard and a presentation of period music. Jim McKee, site manager of the Brunswick Town/Fort Anderson State Historic Site, will speak. The public is invited to attend and enjoy a light lunch.

World War I re-enactors at Friends of Fort Caswell Rifle Range

Carl Mauney will show off the uniform, tools and weapons used by American soldiers at a ceremony Saturday, April 6, at 11 a.m. Members of the Southport Historical Society cannon division will also be on hand to offer a salute with "Thor." More information on page 2A. (Photos contributed)