

COMMUNITY BRIEFSFundraiser moves to a new, bigger location

The Friends of Fort Caswell Rifle Range have announced their yearly fundraiser is being moved from the Caswell Dunes Clubhouse to a more spacious area at the Caswell Beach Town Fire Station (public service facility). Dinner, Derby and Dance will be Saturday, May 4, from 4 to 9 p.m. The public is welcome. For a reservation or additional information, call 278-7584 or purchase tickets at Ricky Evans Gallery on Howe St. in Southport. Cost is $15 per person.

Proceeds benefit the historical preservation of the 1918 Ft. Caswell Rifle Range, the Honor a Brunswick County WWI Veteran Project and the plan to publish a book about Brunswick County veterans that served in the Great War. Books are to be placed in Brunswick County schools and libraries.

By special arrangement, two bands will entertain the nonprofit and supporters with jazz and music of the 50s through the 70s. Dance to the music of Trilogy, Three to Get Ready and Jimmy playing the keyboard and singing.

Hat contests, Best Dressed Couple, 50/50, gift basket bids, race bets and a Mint Julep are being offered, in addition to a catered dinner and music. So grab a hat and have fun at the Dinner, Derby and Dance! BYOB.
