Oktoberfest benefits rifle range

Residents, visitors and history buffs should make plans now for the Saturday, October 12 Oktoberfest to benefit the Friends of Fort Caswell Rifle Range.

The event will be from noon until at least 5 p.m. at the town's Public Services building and will feature German food, arts and crafts vendors, polka dancing, a 50-50 raffle and live music. Tickets are $15 per person and can be reserved by calling 910-278-7584. Proceeds will benefit preservation of the World War I rifle range and an upcoming book about Brunswick County residents who served in the Great War.
